

ANNIVERSARY DINNER — Members of four generations gathered for Sunday dinner, August 14, to fete the J. H. Spittstoessers, 1829 W. 247th Street in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Family Reunion Dinner to Be Followed by Open House

It took a large table flanked by two smaller ones to seat the 22 guests representing four generations who gathered to honor the J. H. Spittstoessers of 1829 W. 247th street, at a 50th anniversary family dinner held Sunday, August 14, and gracing the middle table was a lovely old table cloth which was part of Mrs. Spittstoesser's trousseau.

Center piece was an arrangement of gold and white dahlias, balanced by a miniature ox-cart done in gilt complete with pick and shovel and filled with 50 silver dollars wrapped in gleaming tinsel, and a tree of plenty.

Place cards were embellished with golden wedding bells, while table appointments were carried out with treasured old dishes of white and gold. But highlight was a four-tier wedding cake topped by a gray-haired bride and bridegroom. The cake was decorated by Mrs. Joe Alveraz.

Open house will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Spittstoesser at their home Friday afternoon from 2 to 4. This will also be in observance of the 50th wedding anniversary of two of Lomita's first citizens. Among those present will be guests from San Diego, El Monte, Riverside and Downey.

The pioneer couple were married in Los Angeles in 1899, first establishing their residence on Catalina Island. In 1907 they chose Lomita as their future home and since then have been active members of the community. At Friday's open house, many friends will wish them continued happiness in the home of their choice.

Guests at the Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Spittstoesser, Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Keys and son Ivan; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rolfe, with sons Harold and Gerald; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keys and daughter Susan of Lomita; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beaver, Jr., Burbank; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Collier, Placentia; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hickman, Harbor City and Mrs. Leila Bostock.

Seaside... Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

We're glad to hear that Pauline (Mrs. Leonard) Doyle, Doris Way, is home from the hospital after a major operation and is feeling fine and getting along nicely.

The Suters, Bo and Lola, entertained with a buffet dinner recently in honor of the 35th anniversary of Lola's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hawkins of Redondo Beach. Present also were Mr. T. L. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Myers and their daughter Carol Lynn.

Margaret (Mrs. Edward) Jeffrey has had the pleasure of a visit from her sister, Mary S. Michie of Casper, Wyo.

Neighbors we all knew quite well, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dale moved Saturday to Los Angeles and will live on Denker avenue.

Our "one and only" Kenny, was two years old last Tuesday and he celebrated with a birthday party shared by 18 of his little friends.

Bright colored clown hats and balloons furnished lively entertainment for the small fry with game prizes won by Bruce Shockency and Jane Carlton. Favors were spoons and bowls filled with candy.

The little guests were Judy Anderson, Long Beach, Sharyl Lewis, Los Angeles; and from Seaside Ranchos, Erica Bessmer, Marlene and Lanai Fetter, Bruce and Brent Shockency, Timmy and Carolyn Roetger, Jane and Johnny Carlton, Linda Stomonts, Stevie and Merita Morris, Patty and Alexandria Merola; Joan O'Hanon, Stevie Sparks and Gloria Notman from Hollywood Riviera.

Refreshments were sandwiches on small rolls, cake, ice cream and punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Arndt and family visited in Vista over the weekend with Ray Conant, Mildred's brother a ranch owner there as host.

From a reliable source (in Seaside Ranchos) came this comment recently, "The current joke in the Torrance Police department is that, even though the residents of Seaside Ranchos asked for Stop signs, the biggest percentage of the drivers stopped are local people." Are our faces red?

Mr. and Mrs. William Shockency with Thelma's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bradford and friend Miss Ruby Steay, had a lovely drive to Idyllwild in San Jacinto Mountains Sunday where they picnicked and hiked.

While visiting her son Mr. M. Sparks of Doris Way, Mrs. James Sparks fell and broke both her arms. She left the hospital Monday and she and her husband are returning to their home in Oklahoma City today by plane. It is too bad her visit with her grandchildren, Stevie and Sydney had to be spoiled by such an accident.

Ruth Hanover, of Sharynne Lane followed our example and went to bed with the mumps. Take our word for it, it isn't as funny as it sounds.

A Senior Girl Scout troop is being formed here which will

Son Honored At Natal Day Party

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stonecker of 24430 Neece avenue, Waveria, were hosts recently at a birthday party honoring their son, Bill.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Stark of Redondo, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee, and Miss V. Crovella of Waveria.

take in girls from 14 years of age and up.

Mrs. Mildred Arndt is to be the advisor and we are glad to hear that her co-worker will be Lynn Shidler of Doris Way. They are both well qualified to work with girls of this age and we hope to hear a lot more from this new troop.

The girls will have their choice of becoming Mariners, Mountaineers, Wings or Senior Scouts. Each of these fields give the girls training and knowledge in the particular program they choose.

Swim Party Highlights Birthday

A swimming party at Hollywood Riviera Plunge was high spot of the afternoon when Tuesday, August 9, David Hatfield entertained a few pals in celebration of his 14th birthday.

Of course the boys were furnished after their dip and devoured the refreshments served by David's mother at the family home, 25305 Narbonne avenue. Games filled in the day's schedule.

Having fun were Robert Isom, Robert Santlich, Richard Faubel, Terry Porter, Danny Fitzgerald, Robin Hatfield (brother of the honoree), and the honored guest. Enjoying the frolic was David's grandmother, Mrs. Oliver Porter, of San Pedro.
